Brief Description

This committee fosters dialogue and communication of information between accredited CCMG training sites and the following CCMG Committees: Examinations; Accreditation of Centres; Credentials; Education, Ethics and Public Policy (E2P2); and Training in support of the CCMG Mission*. Its membership is entirely ex officio.

Meetings of PEACE-Train will be scheduled following the standing CCMG Committee meetings held in conjunction with the AGM and, as required, called by the chair to address emerging business affecting training sites.

Mandate

To support the CCMG mission by providing a forum for:

1. the discussion of issues identified by the CCMG training sites as they pertain to training, examinations, accreditation and credentials.
2. the dissemination of information from the Training, Examinations, Accreditation and Credentials committees to training sites.
3. sharing materials and resources developed for the purpose of training and examination between training sites.
4. informing the E2P2 committee of issues identified by the CCMG training sites as they pertain to its mandate of ethics and education.

Examinations, Accreditation of Centres, Credentials and E2P2 and Training committees
(PEACE-Train)

- The committee shall include a Board representative, preferably the current President, who will inform the PEACE-Train chair of emerging issues relevant to the training sites. The board representative will be responsible of documenting in the CCMG board minutes the name, term and expected end of term of the PEACE-Train chair.
- The Chair of the committee will be one of the Fellowship Committee Chairs, selected by consensus from among eligible volunteers or nominees, at the annual meeting of PEACE-Train or as required.
- The term of the Chair will be 3 years renewable once. As membership is ex-officio, the chair will resign when no longer holding the role of a local Fellowship Committee Chair.
